BRITISH IMMIGRATION.

MR EGERTON'S REPORT

With great pleasure we call the attention of our readers to Mr. Egerton's remarks, in his report to the foreign office, on British Immigration to the Plate. There is an air of truthfulness and impartiality in everything Mr Egerton has written about this country which makes us regret that so valuable and authoritative a paper should be limited to the very confines of the British reading public, namely a Parliamentary blue book. It might well suit the Argentine Government to publish in the Times and other English organs Mr Egerton's report, that it may obtain the same publicity as Mr Gallenga's letters, which are admitted to have done much for the credit of the country abroad. Mr Egerton, in touching on British Immigration to the Plate, embraces a most ticklish topic, but it will be seen from the following how ably he discusses it.

"Amongst the most successful—if not the most successful, in comparison to their numbers—of all the immigrants of this country have been the Irish subjects of the Queen. They generally arrived with little or no capital and set to work and saved as shepherds.

"Many of them profited by the experience and advice of a much-respected priest and countryman, Father Fahy, in the selection of good land, and have now, by the produce and increase of their flocks, aided by their own economy, become wealthy men and owners of large tracts of the west of this province. The Irish here form a singularly prosperous community.

"The Scotch, too, as elsewhere, seem to have been generally successful.

"The immigration of the English has on the whole proved less fortunate. Whether it was that the wrong class of men came out here, that they were ill-directed, that they came here at the wrong moment, or took to sheepfarming in districts in Santa Fe and Entre Rios, which they at last found, by bitter experience, were not suited for sheep, or were ruined by the devastations of Indians in the former, or by the fearful havoc of property which Lopez Jordan's revolution caused everywhere in the latter province, there is no doubt that a large number of Englishmen have been very unsuccessful in farming in this country. Of course practical, steady English labouring men have done well. It should be understood, however, that men unaccustomed to country life are, as a rule, ill-adapted to farming, either here or elsewhere; and it was many of such who settled in this country, induced by tales of the fortunes to be made. To one unfortunate settlement—Frayle Muerto, in Santa Fe—a great number of young Englishmen of education and good family were enticed under promises which proved fallacious. The result was that many returned home, whilst others, giving way to the vice of drink—more pernicious by far here than in a colder climate—sank to the lowest depths of degradation. A small minority only, plodding on, have gained a living.

"No doubt of those who failed here some came out as a last resource, having shown no capacity for steady work at home, and when taking to a wild life, abandoned themselves to its brutalizing tendencies.

"As a fact, no immigrant should do badly in this country, and more especially in this province. Land is cheaper here than in other part of the world, and it is easy of access. A start can be made in the Plate with less capital than is necessary in most other new countries.

"The soil and climate together are admirable; droughts are less frequent than formerly, and the Government having become more stable, the risks from civil war and disorder have become less. These risks, however, have still to be taken into consideration, and are the true cause of the low price of land. Robberies of cattle, and even murders, take place unpunished; and every settler must look out for himself, as proper provision for the safety of life and property cannot yet be said to be secured to him by the Government. Indeed, it speaks volumes for the native population that, under the circumstances of its impunity, crime is not more frequent.

"It may be said: 'The further from Buenos Ayres the greater the risk and the cheaper the land.'

"Thus the Province of Corrientes is one which should afford an excellent opening for the cattle-farmer; but there the security for life and property is worse than indifferent.

"In fine, an Englishman should make high profits in farming in the Republic; but his life will lack many of the blessings of civilization which in North America or Australia would not fail him."

THE PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE.

The Provincial Legislature of this Province suspended its session on the announcement of President Garfield's death. The attention and sympathy of the provincial legislators calls for remark. Deputy Salterain moved in the matter, and in brief and eloquent words stated the case; he thought that the Legislature should adjourn owing to the melancholy news, and therely somewhat testify its reprobation and sympathy.

Deputy Ramos Mejia, in a somewhat matter-of-fact speech, stated that the motion was absurd, since the probabilities were that very soon the Municipalities would follow in the wake and suspend business. In such a ratio the honorable Deputy argued that very soon all business would be interrupted and private corporations would assume the mantle of the National Congress and send forth their expressions of grief. At this critical moment the opinions of the Chamber of Deputies were very much divided, and the pros and cons on the motion were extremely problematical as to a final issue, when our esteemed friend and lawyer, Dr Francisco Lopez, stepped forward and settled the question.

Dr Lopez very summarily proved that the Legislature of the province of Buenos Aires could not be placed on a par with the simple and modest municipality of a city in the Republic. The learned Dr. stated that the Legislature of the province of Buenos Aires represented the province of Buenos Aires, the richest and most influential division in the Argentine Republic; that as such the Legislature might be considered a collective individuality representing opinion and influence, and that it was both courteous and politic to adjourn the Session as an expression of sympathy for the fate of the unfortunate President of the U. States, General Garfield.

The short speech of Dr Lopez produced an immediate effect on the minds of other deputies, who before doubted as to the advisability of suspending business.

The President of the Chamber, Dr Darquier, then stated that if nobody rose to raise any objections the motion would be put to the vote. Nobody spoke, and silence was more eloquent than words on the occasion: the motion was carried by a vast majority, implying a general reprobation of the miserable and successful attempt of the murderer of the President of the United States.

We here tender our congratulations to Dr Lopez on his well-timed remarks: they breathe the spirit of democracy and humanity. The attention of the Legislature will not pass unobserved, and the legislators may always bear in mind that if the world in general does not care much or anything about their proceedings, those nearly related to the late President will always remember the philanthropy of the act and the true friendly spirit that animated the legislators when they passed the motion. The American residents will always think with pleasure of Dr Lopez and of Dr Salterain.

A ROVER'S IMPRESSIONS OF BUENOS AIRES.

In approaching Buenos Aires by water from Montevideo, there is no chance of receiving those vivid first impressions which sometimes prejudice the traveller in his opinion of a city; and as we steamed gaily to the Mole from our steamer, anchored at a distance of twelve miles from the shore, it soon became evident that Buenos Aires does not lie nestling within a circle of hills. But hills are not everything, and Nature made it up by treating us to as magnificent a mass of glowing colour as I have ever seen. The sun was setting, and the whole Heavens seemed on fire, forming a ruby background for the town, which appeared spread in interminable streets and white squares in the foreground. The reflection on the waters of the River Plate was a delicate pink, and we steamed on amid long shadows thrown by the numerous lighters we met on our way, and which added much to the picturesqueness of the scene. Quickly, too quickly, the rosy tinge changed to long glints of yellow light, and, in a moment as it appeared to us Europeans, the brief twilight of the southern hemisphere was gone, and the gathering gloom overtook us ere we reached the small boats that were to land us at the Mole. Then, as if by a magician's wand, twinkling lights appeared quickly one after another, and gave us a good idea of the immense stretch of town before us. Prominent among the lights was that of the Cabildo clock, whose tower I scarcely knew in its altered form, for it is seventeen years since I last walked in the Plaza Victoria. This was the first of many improvements I was to see in the city, and no mushroom structure either, for they say the tower is too heavy for its foundations.

Directly I landed I looked for the Hole in the Mole of famous memory, but was assured it is now a tradition merely. At the Custom House my experience was a decided contrast to many an irritating 'visit' I have endured in many places: the officials were polite and courteous, and our reception there was but a gauge, as I have fully verified since, of a certain open-handed and free personal way of dealing with people which is positively refreshing after many years of the mechanical restraints of monarchy and the conservative system in general. I have found the same spirit everywhere among the many varieties of people I have had the pleasure of meeting here. In social life there is a certain freedom and want of formality which seem to put people more or less on an equality, and every guest is made to feel he is equally welcome and of equal importance to the business of the gathering. In business circles, though men are wide-awake enough, they have an easy way of dealing with each other, in which the desire to take advantage is not evident. The reason for this easy rubbing of people together cannot be because most men one meets are self-made, for the typical self-made man is notoriously rough and intolerant to those whose purses are not so well filled as his own. It must be due, I think, to the balmy air of the Plate, and to the kindly aid in the struggle for existence which Nature has given the settlers in this most wonderfully productive and fertile land.

What man of ordinary human organisation, on turning up a spadeful of the rich loamy soil of this country, could feel anything but encouragement, and how the eyes of some of our Scotch and English farmers would glisten at the sight of what practically is solid wealth! I am much astonished at the rapid growth of trees and vegetation, and have seen nothing to compare with it except in Egypt; yet there the precious deposit comes down but once a year with the 'fertilising Nile,' and when the waters recede irrigation has to be kept up with immense labour and at considerable expense. The tiny foot or two of alluvial deposit, rich as it is in Egypt, can never be compared with the inexhaustible deposits of the country of the River Plate. Truly, then, the inhabitants of this province may be said to walk on solid wealth, and more so the inhabitants of the richer provinces. I say, then, no wonder people are good-natured and easy-going here: scratch the earth and it brings forth abundantly. Certainly we have occasionally a drought, when thousands of sheep and cattle die, and clouds of locusts have been known to hide the sun; but, taking it altogether, an unknown wealth lies buried in the soil of this favoured land. This very prodigality of Nature has found out the weak points in human nature, and it is especially noticeable in native and old foreign residents in this country. There is a certain 'laissez faire' and putting-off-till-to-to-morrow style which strikes the casual visitor accustomed to the rigorous system of London business routine: time is not weighed by the minute, and there is a charming laxity as to keeping appointments. This is put down to the climate which, no doubt, has somewhat of a relaxing effect, but it is really due to the fact that it is very easy to live here. Perhaps, I ought rather to have said 'was easy to live here,' for they tell me that there is now much competition in every line of business. Certainly, I am struck with the life and activity in the streets of Buenos Aires and with the number of people constantly about. I confess, I had the impression few went about the streets, and that the people who did so lolled along in an indefinite sort of manner, and this is the idea prevalent in England generally. The real fact is, however, that the pavements are not wide enough to accommodate the people in half the principal streets, and one is obliged to step on to the streets themselves, which, by the way, are uncommonly badly paved. To the observer there is also a look of intelligence, coupled with self-reliance, in the faces we see about town, with a happy absence of that stern, pre-occupied look so common in the Englishman of business as he hurries along the streets of the city of London. However Utopian the theory of a Republic may be in its fullest development, this fact still remains, that, so long as the individual feels his own importance in his new country, and recognises his duty to it, so long will he continue to make a good man of business and a good soldier. So much far the mass of the people.

As regards the 'cultured few,' they are smaller, perhaps, in number than would be found in a first-class European city of the same size, but considering how young the country is, and how slow in proportion the cultivation of science and art must be, I am pleased to find how much real culture exists. Take music for instance. In the first few weeks I have been in Buenos Ayres I have heard the newest and very best music, music heard only in select circles in London. At various private houses I have spent delightful musical evenings, listening to amateur singing and playing of the highest order, including 'morceaux' by Brahms, Boito, Rubenstein, &c.; and for the public there are the Quartette Society's concerts, which have done so much to raise the tone of music in this city, and where you hear the choicest classical music. It is a perfect treat; too, to go into those fine music shops in Calle Florida and examine the splendid collection of music. A walk down Calles Florida and Victoria in the afternoon will show what splendid shops there are in this city, and on going in you will find an extraordinary collection of things in some of them, and it is so because the large stores here deal directly with the best houses in London, Paris, Berlin and Vienna, so you see the best of everything from those commercial centres. Prettier sights than the shops are the ladies walking so gracefully down these same streets; better dressed ladies than the Porteñas you will find nowhere, and Worth himself would be proud of many of the costumes. There is a peculiar grace about the manner of walking and general carriage of the bodies which impresses the visitor accustomed to the more sturdy bearing of the Anglo-Saxon Society may be a hollow sham, and more hollow here than in other large cities, but, at any rate, one is entertained right royally here, and as I steam away from the River Plate, I shall feel with regret that I am leaving a warm-hearted and generous people who, if blessed only with a more fixed and vigorous system of Government, bid fair to be second to none in the New World, and not very far behind the Old World after all.

COLON THEATRE.

BENEFIT OF MLLE. HELENE LEROUX.

PLOT OF 'PRE AUX CLERCS.'

We should perform unfairly our work as dramatic critic if we did not call the special attention of our readers to the extraordinary representation which is to take place this evening at the Colon Theatre, and we should act unfairly towards the talented and beautiful singer for whose benefit this representation is given if we did not do this in a special article. Mlle. Helene Leroux has gained, from the first day of her arrival, the sympathy of the public, who soon found in her a talented singer, an able actress. Let the public show this evening that the 'bravos' that saluted her were not vain compliments but the real expression of admiration. An empty house is always a disagreeable view for a singer, but is the more so when she is personally interested in the business. We hope also to see many well-known faces.

The 'Pre aux Clercs', comic opera in three acts, music by Herold, words from Planard, was given for the first time at the Opera Comique in Paris on December 15th, 1832. The plot passes near the Palais du Louvre. Marguerite de Valois is retained at the Court of Charles IX, her brother, where her presence is a guarantee for the good conduct of Henry de Navarre, her husband. With Marguerite a noble baroness, Isabel, is at the Court too, and the King expects this young lady to marry the Count de Comminge. The young Baron de Mergy is sent by Henry de Navarre to claim his wife; he too is in love with Isabel, and Marguerite takes interest in him and intends to use in his favour a certain Italian Cantarelli, not knowing that this person is a devoted servant of Comminge. Cantarelli can, for the present moment, not act against Mergy, because a letter which compromises him very much is in possession of the Queen of Navarre. An innkeeper of the 'Pre aux Clercs' and his bride Njcette, are mixed up in the intrigue and give rise to humoristic episodes.

The project of the Queen is to marry Isabel and Mergy secretly, but her plans are counteracted by the fact that Comminge finds this out and provokes Mergy to fight a duel.

In the third act the secret marriage takes place and the newly married pair are looking for an occasion to fly, but not before Mergy has fought Comminge. They meet each other, but are obliged to look for another place by the arrival of some of the King's archers. The duel finishes then with the death of Comminge.

Specially we call attention to the following arias:—The Duo: 'Les rendez-vous de noble compagnie.' The romance of Mergy: 'O ma tendre amie,' and the finale of the first act with the splendid aria 'Souvenirs du jeune age,' a solo for violin between the entre-acte; the aria of Isabel, 'Jours de mon enfance,' with accompaniment of violin; the trio 'Vous me dites sans cesse, pourquoi finir les amours.' In the third act a different school of music is to be noted, occasioned by Herold's writing the beginning of the opera in 1815, and the last part in 1831.

The plot is full of impossibilities, but we, who were present at the general rehearsal, can assure our readers that not only Mdlle. Leroux, but the whole Grau company, will prove that they intend to retain the reputation they have already gained. The distribution of the parts, too, is first-class, as is shown by the following programme:

Isabelle—Mlle. Leroux
La Reine—Merle
Nicette—Gregoire
Mergy—Mauras
Comminges—Negri
Cantarelli—Poyard
Girot—Maugé

All promises not only a fine but also an amusing evening—a first-rate opportunity for a demonstration in favour of such a popular singer as Mdlle. Leroux.

EDITOR'S TABLE

The mail bags for the R.M.S. Douro will close this afternoon as the clock strikes one.

Things opened yesterday with the next thing to a cheer owing to the good news that the Chamber of Deputies had passed the Chilian Boundary Treaty by a sweeping majority. The Senate will do the same, and then, Government, Congress and all Argentines will have done their duty in the matter and it will be Chile's turn to do hers. The hundred million loan introduced in the Senate was another 'novedad'. Different comments are made on it, but on its face the loan is for a sound purpose.

Mr William Mackern, of Calle Florida, goes to Europe in the packet. We are sorry to hear that delicate health is the cause of his trip, but trust that the voyage will completely restore him. 'Au revoir' Mr Mac, and pray dont forget the Standard whenever you feel pen-and-inkishly inclined, which we hope will be often.

The grand raffle of the 'Damas de Misericordia' will come off to-morrow evening, at 7½ p.m., in the saloons of that ultra fashionable cake shop, the 'Aguila', in Calle Florida. The prizes are most beautiful and well worth risking a few dollars for in Charity's name.

This will be a gala night at the old Colon—'Le Pre aux Clercs,' for Madlle Leroux's benefit. Seldom has any actress become so popular here in so short a time as this talented lady, and she is certain to have a lot more money in her purse to-morrow morning than she has to-day. We advise her not to put it into National Banks, at least for the present. We hear the young Frenchmen will take the horses from her carriage. Let no one miss Colon to-night, as it will be the greatest treat of the season.

Blessings were invoked on the Municipal Fathers yesterday by all the shopkeepers' assistants in town, and in every modern language, owing to their Sunday Closing vote of Tuesday. We believe this is the first time on record that the Buenos Aires Municipality has ever been blessed, and being so accustomed to the other thing, the novelty must be truly refreshing for members of the Town Council. It is to be hoped that Lord Mayor Alvear will bring all his characteristic energy to bear in strictly enforcing the new edict; if some big-wigs are allowed to keep their shatters up but their doors ajar, for all who like to enter and buy, then the small fry will follow suit and the whole thing will become a dead letter as before.

We received yesterday a copy of Castelaar's 'Revolucion Religiosa,' exquisitely illustrated. The subscription to it is only 20 copper reals a copy, (dead cheap) and No. 285 Calle Cangallo is the place to apply for it.

The hint supplied by the Knights of the Night here was acted on in Montevideo the other day by a hard-up Government clerk, who sent a threatening demand to a 'distinguido caballero,' requesting 20,000 pats down on the nail, or he would hand the Government documents which would involve him (the 'distinguished') in something more than a little unpleasantness. The gentleman has stoutly refused to be black-mailed, and so the matter stands.

The Nacion reports a curious case in which a worthy old citizen has taken an action at law against a young Lothario for entering his house at night to have stolen interviews with his daughter, a lovely maiden. One night the Adonis did not look before him and kicked over a bucket in the patio. The noise awoke the 'governor' and he came out with a blackthorn, but the young lover showed that thrashing his intended father-in law would not cost him a tear, and the old fellow retreated to the drawing room window, to shout for help. When it came, the young fellow was over the roof and far away, and the affair is now before the courts.

We feel pleasure in being able to supply our Argentine High Life colleagues with another item for their fashionable readers. The 'correct thing' amongst the London 'cream' now is 'High Tea', the 5 o'clock affair having become unutterably low. The 'Alto Te' takes place at 8 p.m., and consists of cold ham, cold turkey, cold grouse, cold anything and everything, the only hot thing being the tea. The ladies come 'decolleteès', dressed up to the nines, or perhaps we should rather say dressed down to that extent: as for the gentlemen, we believe the waiter costume is still the thing. The opera, the weather, and the last new novel are the topics of conversation, and when these, the tea and the turkey are exhausted, the whole crew set to and dance till the small hours. This is the whole affair. We believe there was a High Tea somewhere near the Village of the Plain the other night, and it was a prodigious success, barring a slight contretemps caused by the introduction of Paita cake after the tea and turkey, those who tasted it declaring that they would far prefer a castor oil cocktail.

We were favoured yesterday with a copy of the Statutes of the Club Liberal, whose programme includes separation of Church from State, self-government, civil sanction for all family relations (we thought they had this sanction already) and lots of other nice things. Foreigners can join this Club and will be warmly welcomed.

We feel pleasure in saluting our new colleague El Diario, which made its first appearance in the Bus yesterday. Its 'get up' is somewhat different from the stereotyped sameness of its Argentine colleagues, and it looks less 'serio', which is a relief. No city in the world is afflicted with such painfully serious papers as B. Ayres.

Mr William Martin's Lecture on Elocution takes place this evening, at 8 o'clock, in the School Room of the Scotch Church. The lecture is under the auspices of the Excelsior Society. Members and friends are invited to be present.

A drama in three acts, by the gifted Argentine authoress Doña Eduarda Mansilla de Garcia, will shortly be produced at the Alegria Theatre; it is entitled Lucia Miranda.

Dick Turpin is still haunting the Southern suburbs. A 'vecino' of Lomas was ambling home on his cob the other day when two Knights of the Road requested him to 'stand and deliver.' They stripped him almost naked, took his money, clothes and horse, and then disappeared. Far better take the Southern Railway, irregular as it is, to Lomas, than run the dangers of the road.

The President of the National Chamber of Deputies sent a telegram of condolence to the President of the House of Representatives at Washington on President Garfield's death. It consisted of 30 words and cost $6520 m/c.

A party of the 'individuo' class, named Escoba, was locked up yesterday for using a broom-handle on his mother. If it had been his mother-in-law? But his mother!

The robbers paid a visit to a Flores Road quinta on Tuesday night, and walked off with all the knives and forks in the house. As they also stole a fat turkey and half a dozen chickens from the house next door, it is surmised that both the 'cubiertos' and the chickens were required for a High Tea.

The statue of the late Dr. Adolfo Alsina has come out. The box was opened yesterday, and the splendid work excited general admiration. Millet of Paris is the sculptor. The statue will be unveiled in the Plaza Libertad on December 29th.

The Rural Society's Cattle Show opens to-day at Palermo and we wish it the finest of weather, while remembering that the sky looked mighty watery yesterday evening. The opening ceremony will be performed by the President of the Republic, who will be accompanied by some of his Ministers and the Diplomatic Corps. All the military bands of the garrison will be in attendance.

The Libertad says that half the Southern camps are under water, and if there be a drop more rain, there will be a disastrous inundation all over the South. A peon was drowned at Tandil while trying to ford a swollen arroyo.

The Anglo-Argentine Tramway Company are about to establish a new station in Calle Brazil and Salta.

The Italian steamer Europa brings 960 immigrants, the largest batch in one steamer for two years past. Viva! There is corn in Egypt still.

Turfites will find a congenial chapter, on the Porongos Races, in our Supplement.

We hear that the German Concert at the Coliseum on Monday night was a splendid success, as Teutonic musical entertainments generally are. Unforeseen circumstances at the last moment deprived us of the pleasure of being present, but we hear the concert praised on all hands as the best of the season.

The Nacional's telegram last night gives extracts from an article of the Jornal do Commercio of Rio, in reference to the armaments of the Argentine Republic, which has caused immense attention. In Rio the opinion is that this country is preparing for war.

The project of the National Government to convert all the Home Debts into a five per cent stock came like a burst of thunder this morning on the market, and gave rise to the most animated discussions. The scheme, although with an apparent gain to the Government and the country, is frowned on by the whole market, and opinion is decidedly opposed to the measure—

First because it is likely to damage Argentine Credit abroad.

Second—Because the amount specified, one hundred millions pats, is far and away beyond what the debts proposed to be converted amount to.

Fourth—Because there is no proportion in the premiums offered on conversion 5 o/o premium on the 6 o/o Bonds being infinitely higher premium than 10 o/o premium on the Treasury Bills or 8 o/o on the Roads and Bridges.

Fifth—Because until the Chilian question is finally settled it would be better to avoid all further new loans, the object being susceptible of misinterpretation.

Sixth—Because any such law is an arbitry use of authority, compelling people who, trusting to the credit and honor of the country bought our 9 o/o stocks perhaps at a much higher premium than what the Government now offers to pay, to convert.

We try in the foregoing schedule to grasp all the objections to this truly tremendous measure. Yet it shows the true state of this market. Spite of all the fuss the measure has given rise to, gold did not move an inch.

The following is the new project:—

Art. 1—Let there be issued 100,000,000 Hard Dollars in Bonds of 5 o/o interest and 1 o/o annual amortization at par by drawings. During the first ten years the amortizing fund can not be altered in any shape whatever.

Art. 2—The Government is authorised to negotiate these Bonds at home or abroad, as it may see fit.

Art. 3—The proceeds or the product of its interest shall be devoted to the payment and amortization of the following debts. [Here follows the list of the Foreign and Home Debts.]

Art. 4—Whatever balance may remain after paying off the above debts shall be devoted to National railway extension.

Art. 5—Holders of the Bonds specified in Art. 3 can exchange their present Bonds for those created by Art. 1 receiving Bonds of the new issue and the premiums specified hereunder. Holders of the Home Debt created by the Laws of 19th and 24th October, 1876, [Treasury Bills] will receive 10 per cent premium on the written value of their Bonds.

Holders of Home Debt of 17th October, 1863, and 16th Oct., 1869, [Roads and Bridges] will receive 8 o/o premium on the written value.

Holders of the other Bonds, Home or Foreign, specified in Art. 3 will receive 5 o/o premium on the written value.

Art. 6—The Government will fix peremptorily a date on or before which holders of Bonds must make the exchange either at home or abroad.

Art. 7—When the date referred to in the previous Art. has expired, the Executive shall proceed to pay off the Bonds not presented for exchange in cash, for their face value, beginning with these Bonds bearing the highest interest.

Art. 8—To meet the interest and amortization of the Bonds created under this Law, the product of the National Railways, Public Works, and sale of Public Lands shall be devoted, in addition to the General Revenue of the Nation.

Art. 9—Let this be communicated.

The project has been sent to Committee.

The Chargeurs Reunis s.s. Don Pedro leaves direct to-day (Thursday) for Santa Cruz and Havre, she take a full cargo. Mails close at G. Post Office at 1 p.m.

Gold opened at 25.55 cash, and tumbled 5 cents, closing at 25.50, only 31,805 sold cash. For Sept. 30th the sales were 120,000 at 25.50 For Oct. 105,000 sold at 25.60, and one sale disponible at 25.70, and for Nov. one sale at 25.60.

Cedulas ruled brighter, opening weak for cash at 99, and closing buyers at 99½. For end of month 115,000 at 99½. For Oct. one sale at 99½, and for Dec. 20,000 at 99. The stock is very freely offered and hangs on the Government project; they said at the ring that the notice closing the 8 p. cent mission appears to-morrow, which may stiffen prices somewhat.

Nat. Bank shares look very weak, opening cash 124½, closing at 122. For end of month 4100 sold, opening at 123½, dropping on their knees to 122½, and then closing at 124. For Oct. prices opened at 126½ and fell to 124, closing at 125. One broker who sold freely at the ring turned the market to-day, but the market is very far from what it was.

The Bolsa is filled with political rumours, and without attaching too much importance to any afloat, we think it right to say that there appears to be an invisible Mentor ringing a bell outside the Bolsa to caution brokers, merchants, capitalists and speculators that it is time to put on the drag. We find it difficult to explain the difference in the market within the last month. Bank Shares seem to have been galloped to death, Cedulas bolstered up on feathers, and gold, the real monarch of the market, kept in its place by the exchange drawing of the Provincial Bank. How long all this will last seems to depend more on others than ourselves, but heavy operators are taking in sail, and the hundred million loan project that burst on the market this morning shows their judgment.

The sales at the ring were—

At afternoon there was nothing talked of but the hundred million loan. We heard one party offer 300,000 pats Treasury Bills at 130, and refused to sell at anything under, as he says the bill will never pass. Our advices are contrary; the bill will pass and be law sooner than many suppose.

The Nat. Bank Share market dropped to 122½ for end of month and then stiffened. It seems that the outsider whose losses amount to 92,000 fuertes, has arranged with the brokers to pay 33 per cent. Things appear to have an evener turn for the months' liquidation, but money is much looked for on shares.

Discount brokers report 600,000 pats discounted to-day in gold on paper money, and one or two share loans at 12 per cent, shares valued at 80.

We heard of applicstions for money on Gas Shares, 12 per cent interest and shares valued at 1800.

There is much anxiety to hear from London. No telegrams for last five days. The news of the 100 million loan was telegraphed this morning; it will knock Hard Dollars and Treasury Bills down in that market, and affect other Argentine stocks also.

The sale of Mr. Michael Tyrrell's wool at the Once was the talk of the whole market; it is the finest lot we have seen in the market this season. It is the remainder of Mr. Tyrrel's wool, whose first lot was sold as 143, second lot at 110, and then Mr Tyrrell stopped selling; he now sells the rest at 87, which is the highest market price to-day.

Exchange was done at 49¾-½ and 50, and 300,000 francs at 5.27. In the afternoon takers were offering at 49¾.

Mr Williamson was enveloped in friends when he entered the Bolsa and much congratulated on his recovery; he leaves for Europe at once on a health tour. We hope to see him soon back, well and strong after his trip.

Our Boca correspondent gives the following—

The Nat steamer Villarino cleared to-day for Bahia Blanca, a full ship with many passengers and several squads of soldiers with their respective officers.

I noticed at Mr John Turner's premises some splendid postes and some excellent wire for fencing being taken into the deposits.

The message of President Roca to Congress on the hundred million loan is most important but very long; we must hold it for to-morrow. We note that the loans proposed to be converted into a 5 o/o stock are as follows:—

Mr W MacKern took leave of his friends on Change to-day, he sails for Europe in the Douro to-morrow, and during his absence his business remains in charge of his son Mr W H MacKern. We wish him a pleasant voyage and hope to see him back again in 4 or 5 months completely recovered in health. His son Dr MacKern, who is a London physician, and a gold medal University man, accompanies his father to Europe, and we hear will probably practise in London.

The ratification of the Chilian treaty by the house of Deputies yesterday, 45 votes against 15, was well received on Change, and it is to be hoped will somewhat allay the alarm that for the last few days existed in this market on this subject. We have it on the very best authority that in the Senate there will be a still greater majority in favor of the Treaty; thus, all that the Argentine Government can do to settle the Chilian question on the basis proposed it has done and is doing, but fears are entertained that in Chile there may be a hitch, although we for our part feel confident that the Chilians will ratify what they have already signed. The market is filled with rumours from all quarters; most of them may be attributable to speculation, meanwhile the Argentine Government is decided that now and for ever this question must be settled.

Messrs G Gowland & Co. have announced the sale by auction of several splendid city properties belonging to the Lagos Wilde estate. Properties in some of the best parts of the city.

Two leagues of land in Lincoln sold yesterday by Nuñez & Co. for $142,500 per league; Mr Romero buyer.

The fine large house and quinta property alongside the Plaza Once, lately occupied by Father Martin, has been sold by Mr Casey for 350,000 m/c. It cost a year ago 250,000 m/c. This shows how property is rising. Mr Van Gelderen buyer.

The sale of 3000 head of horned cattle in the South at 250 m/c all sorts is reported, calves free.

Several land certificates sold yesterday at 23,500, and some sold at 23,000 m/c.

The Villarino cleared this morning from the Boca filled with cargo and taking a large number of military officers sent by the Government to the South. An expedition we believe of both a scientific and military character.

The Emigration Department sends up to Rosario a large number of new hands to work at the earthworks on one of the railways. No one can complain of want of employment in this country, as we hear the department wants several hundred more hands for the same works.

We heard on Change that the other day during the storm the lightning struck the s.s. Herschell but luckely did no damage.

El Gobierno de Santiago ha sido, como lo de cimos, autorizado por su Legislatura a vender esta gran zona de tierra, pero a objeto de facilitar la operacion, la venta se hara sin otro plano que el de la Provincia, por cuanto se da el derecho de ubicar donde se quiera, dentro de los limites de la misma.

Con este derecho cualquiera persona que este en el secreto de la situacion de un campo inmediato a la plaza principal, a las quintas contiguas a la ciudad o por sus alrededores, puede pedir su ubicacion alli mismo, como tambien los que conozcan donde existen los que puedan tener pastos de primera calidad aguas permanentes, montes, etc.

El Gobierno de Santiago no pretende con esta operacion hacer un negocio.—Su objeto se limita a fomentar el progreso de su Provincia, poniendo la tierra al alcance de todo el mundo, llamando asi a su centro la formacion de grandes establecimientos y la poblacion consiguiente.

El barrio Sud toma cada dia mayor incremento, las mas importantes obras nacionales se haran indudablemente en este costado, y el valor de todas estas propiedades se acrecentara rapidamente. El Campo de Marte esta ya decidido se haga en la quinta de Diehl. La Escuela de Artes y Oficios en la calle de Brasil y Matheu, el Hospital Frances, el Parque, depositos, cuarteles y muchos otros importantes edificios entre los cuales estaran dos ministerios nacionales, todas estas obras que dentro de breve tiempo adornaran la Capital haran quintuplicar el valor de la propiedad territorial, y es ya notorio el aumento de estos valores.

No hay, pues, mejor caja de ahorros ni Banco que de mejores interes, que emplear las economias en terrenos centricos que, como estos, poseen gas, tramways, aguas corrientes, empedrados, etc.

PORONGOS JOCKEY CLUB.

Porongos, Sept. 17th, 1881

The races originally fixed for Sept 8th and 9th were through bad weather postponed to the 13th and 14th. Though the postponement caused some slight dissatisfaction, yet it proved in the end to have been a wise move, as the selected days could not have been finer had they been made to order. The sun tempered by a pleasant breeze shone out with almost summer fervour, gladdening the hearts of such estancieros as have a remnant of their cattle left. The rain of the day before had caused the low ground at the far side of the course to be a little holding on the first day, quite an exceptional thing in this part of the world, as the opposite extreme is the more usual. On the second and third days the going could not have been excellend; the sun and wind had absorbed the surplus moisture and left the turf springy and elastic.

On the first day proceedings commenced with 10 Square Flat Race, wt. 11 st. 7 lbs.

1. J Perera's b g Charrua, L Gomez
2. B Simmonet's b g Haragan, owner
3. T F Murphy's br g Too Late, dor

Eight ran. When the flag fell Charrua, Haragan and Raga, who had drawn the most favorable positions, at once showed in front, with Mr Garat's two greys in close attendance. Mr O'Neil's Amarron and Too Late on the extreme outside. Before half the distance had been covered Raga was beaten, and Charrua and Haragan had the race to themselves, the former winning cleverly. Too Late, who had been unable to get through the beaten horses was third a couple of lengths behind the winner.

1. Mr T F Murphy's br g Too Late owner
2. Mr H Tidemann's br g Robert the Devil, Mr O'Neil.

The league S'chase, once the race of the meeting, had only two entries. It would seem the R. the Devil by his runaway victory last March had frightened away all opposition. At any rate the only horse which appeared to oppose him was his old contrario Too Late, whom he had beaten on two previous occasion; 4 to 1 and 5 to 1 against Too Late were freely offered and found few takers, any chance he might have had was rendered nil through his having run in the previous race, at least so said the 'Cognoscenti.' However the glorious uncertainty was once again exemplified. R. the Devil led at a slow pace with Too Late lying off; they continued this with little change until the second last fence had been jumped, then Too Late challenged his opponent and passing him easily won hands down.

1. Mr B Simmonet's dun g. Tren, 28 lbs extra, L Gomez
2. Mr H Tidemann's blk g Mac Boy, 7 lbs extra, Mr O'Neil.

Notwithstanding his crushing penalty Tren took the lead soon after starting and won with consummate ease, proving himself to be one of the best tiro horses in this district.

4th Race, 30 Square S'chase for horses which never won, wt. 12 st

1. Col. G Amalivia's dun g Zonzo, Saragosa
2. Mr T F Murphy's blk. g Congo, owner
0. Mr B Simmonet's ch g No te piques, Fernandez.

No-te-Piques delayed the start, by persistently refusing to join his horses and showed a most unamiable temper. When at length a start was effected he ran out at the first fence and carried the other two with him. Zonzo was the first righted and obtained a long lead which he kept to the end. No-te-piques did not complete the course.

2nd DAY.

1. A Garland's br. g Van John owner.
2. M. Costa's b g Vengador (14 lbs extra), Julian.
3. H Cantera's blk g Zebruno, owner.
4. B Simmonet's dun g Tren (21 lbs ex.) Gomez.

This was a capital race. The lot ran in a cluster for three fourths of the distance, here Tren dropped back beaten, and after a rattling set to Mr Garland beat the proffessional jock by a head.

The Consolation Flat Race was won by Mr Costa's Vengador, and Mr Murphy's Congo had a walk over for the Consolation Steeple-chase.

On the following day Mr Murphy's Too Late won a match against Col. Amalivia's Zouzo, once round the Steeple-chase course, after a good race by a neck. This and the 40 square flat race were the closest of the meeting. Mr Costa's Vengador beat Mr Tidemann's MacBoy, (2nd) Mr Garland's Van John, and Mr Simmonet's No-te-Piques in a flat race of 30 squares. This also proved a close race between the first two. A trotting match was won by Mr Nogueira's gr pony beating Mr Murphy's black pony. Then came a race which excited great interest among the 'hoi polloi.' This was a race to be ridden once round the S'chase course by native riders, for prizes given to the riders of the first three horses by the P. J. Club. Seven horses came to the post, and when each had made several preliminaries over the water jump in front of the stand, which caused great amusement to the lookers on, (the water is 13 ft. wide), they were started on their journey. One horse came to grief at the far side of the course, without injuring himself or his rider. Of the remainder Mr Garland's Scaramouche was first, and Mr Murphy's Fly by Night second, while a horse belonging to the Sub-delegate of the town made a dead heat with Mr O'Neil's Rosillo for third money, all of them ridden by native peons.

This brought a very successful meeting to a conclusion. The Porongos Jockey Club, which but quite lately seemed doomed to decay and required careful nursing and propping, has now acquired new life, a large accession of new members, and as all appear to pull well together, we may hope that the club will yet reach a good old age.

The next races are fixed for the last fortnight in March. The programme is almost the same as usual, but an additional race has been framed, for 'criollas sin reserva' wght 137 lbs, distance 10 squares.

TELEGRAPHIC LEAGUE.

FROM THE POST OFFICE REPORT.

If we examine the map of South America we immediately see the necessity of uniting the telegraphic wires over distances which the post can with difficulty pass. Where the post is impotent, the telegraphic lines come in with advantage, removing the difficulties of epistolary correspondence. Thus, it may well be said that in America the telegraph wire takes precedence of the post, owing to the enormous distances.

Peru and Bolivia are separated from us and the distance is so great that it takes nearly a month's travelling: we will not speak of Ecuador or Venezuela: with the latter republics we maintain no communication, owing to the immense distances which separate us. These and many other States might be in communication with this Republic, through the medium of the telegraph wires: the communication with B. Ayres would also unite them with Montevideo, and many of them, so to say, directly with Europe. The Post Office proposed a Postal League to the Governments of Montevideo and Rio Janeyro.

As the Republic is united with Chile it would not be difficult to extend the wires to the north towards Callao, Junin, Santa Fe de Bogota, Quito and Caracas.

In the east cables attach us to Uruguay and Brazil, through the existing cables: with land lines the same object might be easily attained. Besides the general communication that a telegraph league would insure, we must also consider the all-important reduction that would subsequently follow in the charges made for telegrams. The latter circumstance would lay the wires at the disposal of all.

In view of these benefits the Post Office asked from the Government permission to propose a League to Uruguay and Brazil, a unity in the lines which might perhaps extend not only to her northern territories of South America, but also to the Republic of Mexico, to the province of California and, in fact, throughout all the United States.

The first steps in the matter were not successful, as the Montevideau Government did not well understand the great convenience of the League proposed. In this question the present Direction might have disregarded Uruguay and have proposed the League to Brazil. We already knew the acceptation of same by the neighbouring Empire. At the same time the union of the Brazilian and Argentine lines was much less expensive than that of the Oriental and Argentine lines. Fifteen leagues of wire could immediately connect us with Brazil.

Nevertheless, the Direction suspended its negotiations, thinking that the Argentine Republic should in no case overlook its interests with the Banda Oriental, and, therefore, everything depends on the decision of the Assembly of the neighbouring Republic.

In fact there is at present no obstacle to this Triple-alliance League, and the country may anticipate that before the year is out the League will emerge from its present embryonic condition and become a fact which will benefit all.

Then the foreseen opportunity will arrive when we must present ourselves with a considerable amount of capital before the European League, proposing to secure our incorporation, enjoying equal rights and privileges as the European Powers. This fact would consolidate the telegraph service, and one vast and harmonizing net of iron wire would encircle the globe.
